Death of Hon. John P. Glass.

We regret to learn that the Hon. John P. Glass, Speaker of the last House of Representatives, died at his home in Pittsburg on Sunday. The deceased was well known throughout the State, and during his Legislative term, by his official action and personal deportment, made many friends, who will receive with sorrow the sad tidings of his death.

SKELETON OF A MAN FOUND IN THE Woods.-On Monday or Tuesday of last week, says the Pottsville Standard, a party of men or boys, while out gunning near Raub's, in the neighborhood of Ringtown, discovered the skeleton of a man. He appeared to be well dressed, having on new soots, good clothing, etc. About his clothes were found a prayer book, a pistol, some keys, three clay pipes, and a watch chain. When found he was lying on a declivity; above him were his hat and overcoat. A Coroner's jury was empanneled, who, after viewing the case, came to the conclusion that he was one of the party who, about a year ago, attacked the house of Mr. Henry Rapp, near the place above mentioned where Mr. Johnson was killed, and Mr Rapp severely wounded. It is supposed from circumstantial evidence, that this man after being shot by Johnson left the main body of assailants and took to the woods (he being tracked in that direction for some distance,) tying a handkerchief (which was found on him) around his body to prevent the blood from dropping, and thus enable his pursuers to track him. Persons living in the neighborhood had often noticed the sed, but could not account for it. Remarkable to state, the skin was in a good state of preservation, but everything else, save the covered it. Last week he raised it, and on twenty yards from the road, and had, it is weight of nine pounds. supposed, been lying there since the 21st of last March, nearly a year ago. His remains were buried on the spot.

At these rooms the Democrats of the township regularly met for years and made their nominations, and since the abandonment of this Demo cratic Reading Association, which is a little over a year, there has been no regular place of meeting. The ticket last spring (by the way which was more than one-half mongrelized) some formed at the Register's office. That fact is not disputed. This spring, on the evening of the 3d of March, pursuant to notice given, a large and respectable number of Democrats attended a meeting in the office of BARKLEY and IKELER, Esqrs., and formed a ticket,—two weeks before the meeting was held in the Register's office. It would seem that the men who met in the Register's office took up or agreed upon the same ticket that was formed in the office of BARKLEY and IKE-LER, with but two exceptions, viz: they left off the name of A. J. Evans, a Democrat, for School Director, and substituted that of WM. Pracock, a Conservative (Republican) in his stead! and for Constable, they put up the name of MICHAEL WALTER in place of current desire to have all back subscriptions WILLIAM F. This being the fact, we would ask which meeting changed the ticket, with the intent and oesign to throw victory into the hands of the Radicals? Certainly not the meeting that convened on the 3d. As to the attendance at these meetings, we are reliably informed by a gentleman who was at both, that the number of persons at BARKLEY and IKE-LER's office was much the largest, although an invitation may not have been extended to all who call themselves Democrats in this

RED TAPE.-Red Tape has often beer burlesqued, but we doubt if a more extreme case was ever recorded than the following, credited to the English War Department: There is a tradition, said to be historical concerning a clerk in the war office who once wanted a peg whereon to hang his hat. To save the expenses of a carpenter he applied for a hammer and a nail, with which to drive it in himself. Six months passed before he received an answer to his request, and he had long and set up a peg of his own, when a special messenger from the Tower arrived in Pall Mall with a hammer sent to him at last through the medium of numberless requisitions and authorizations. At the same time he was informed that it was not of the war officials to supply pails, but that these would come to him from Woolwhich, and after a few months' further waiting, they really did arrive-a pound of nails, brought by a great ambulance wagon, with its half dozen horses and its dozen at-

SAD ACCIDENT .- A sad and fatal acciden occurred on Saturday morning last, to young married woman named Rebecca Melon employed as a domestic in the family of A. B. Croup, of Briarcreek township, this County, by the explosion of a coal oil lamp. It appears she arose very early on Saturday morning, in order to complete her work and toilet preparatory to a visit to her friends. She lit the lamp and placed it on the window, when it immediately exploded, igniting her dress. In a moment she was enveloped in flames. Her screams aroused the family, who hastily arose and assisted in smother ing the fire. The upper portion of her body was so badly burned, as to preclude all hopes of her recovery. She died on Saturday night having survived about twelve hours Her remains were taken to Newport Luzerne county, for burial on Monday last. Let her fate be a warning to others .- Ber wick Gazette.

MARRIED. On the 19th instant, by the Rev. Wm. J. Eyer, Mr Peter Levan, to Mrs. Anna Williams, both of Roaringereek Township.

In Mifflinville, Columbia County, on Mon-day, the 23d instant, suddenly, Charles H. Hess, Esq., aged about 57 years.

Mr. Hess was prominently known by the people of this county, having been elected to important positions in his Township and County on repeated occasions. In all business transactions he was upright and just. and through careful attention to agricultural and other pursuits he amassed a considerable amount of property. He died suddenly and very unexpected, at his residence, not having complained of feeling ill but a very short time. He had just returned from a neighboring store, where he had been trading, and fell dead in his yard before reaching the door of his dwelling. It is said he did not stir nor speak after he fell. He leaves a wife, a number of children, and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his sudden demise. "Verily, in the midst of life we are in death."

The subject of the above notice was born The subject of the above notice was born at Still Water, Fishingereek township, Columbia county, and is believed to have been the first white male child born in the valley of Fishingereek, above Orangeville. He is the last of six brothers, all of whom were well known throughout the county. By his death one more of the links that binds the past to the present is broken. These old people, God bless them, are the living histories of events long since passed away. We are interested in them, because they record events that we cannot well learn elsewhere, and because we know their testimony will be soon closed up and sealed from us forever.

Having been acquainted with the rifle and woods from his boyhood, he became, like woods from his boyhood, he became, like Nimrod of old, a "mighty hunter before the Lord," and thousands of deer as well -A French woman is in custody at Liverpool, on the charge of killing her husband during a quarrel, by thrusting a sharp pointed poker into his eye.

-The Rocky Mountain Herald advertises for single women. A thousand Yankee girls, it says, could get husbands and homes in Colorado before spring.

-There is said to be an unexampled as the same and the same as bears, wolves, and other wild animals for home. His extensive forest experience made him versed in "hunting stories," and nothing gave his children, grand children, and friends greater pleasure than to listen to his wild adventures or to join his ringing laugh at the successful conclusion of some bold encounter.

But Uncle John is gone! The rifle of The Old Hunter" is silent on the hooks, and his pouch and horn unused upon the peg. Yet long will they be associated in the minds of his family and many friends with he who used them so successfully in life.

He was a firm Democrat, a good citizen, an obliging neighbor, a kind father, a courteous gentleman and an honest man. Let us hope that he has gone to enjoy the unspeakable pleasures of that life that shall never end.
